Dear Principal,

This letter is to provide you with an update on the SACE Stage 2 subject Spiritualities, Religion and Meaning (2SRM10 and 2SRM20).

2022 was the first year of teaching for this subject and, as such, it had to be approved by each of SATAC's member institutions to be granted Tertiary Admissions Subject (TAS) status. At the time that we published the SATAC Tertiary Entrance Booklet (TEB) 2023 | 2024 | 2025 this year, SATAC was yet to receive approval from all our member institutions that 2SRM10 and 2SRM20 be classed as TAS, and the TEB therefore indicated that they were not TAS.

SATAC has now received approval from all our member institutions that both 2SRM10 and 2SRM20 are Tertiary Admissions Subjects which means that they can contribute 10 and 20 credits, respectively, to the calculation of a university aggregate and, therefore, an ATAR.

SATAC is aware that many students have already been undertaking this subject in 2022 and we would like to reassure you that the subject can be used in the calculation of their university aggregates.

We apologise for any confusion or inconvenience caused by this delayed update.

Kind regards,
