Statutory declaration for Rural, Remote and Northern Territory residency

This form can be used to apply for:

- Flinders University rural and remote subquota
- Flinders University Northern Territory subquota
- Charles Darwin University Northern Territory Residency subquotas
- Adelaide University Rural Background Entry pathway

You may supply one statutory declaration to cover all subquotas/pathways for which you are eligible.

Instructions

1. List the addresses that show you meet the requirements of the subquotas/pathways you wish to be considered for – refer to undergraduate course search for more information about eligibility requirements. You must include:
    - Your full residential addresses
    - Dates of residence including the months and year at each address
2. Sign and date the form before a witness either in-person, or remotely through a video link program – see pages 2 and 3 for a list of authorised witnesses. SATAC accepts electronic signatures, please follow these instructions.
    - If your statutory declaration is to be witnessed remotely through a video link program instead of hand or electronically signed, please follow these instructions.
    - The witness must supply all details requested, including their position that allows them to be an authorised witness, for example: Registered Nurse, Pharmacist, Full Time Teacher, etc.
    - A stamp that includes the required information is acceptable
3. You can upload your completed statutory declaration to your mySATAC application. Under 'Submission' in the navigation menu, select 'Documents' then 'Upload personal documents'.

If you do not provide all required details your statutory declaration will not be accepted.

Making changes to your form

Any amendments made to the form must be initialled by both the applicant and the same authorised person who witnessed the statutory declaration. Unwitnessed amendments will not be accepted.
